

K-Love is an inspirational radio station that is uplifting to those who listen to it. It brings people to Christ, and is commercial free. I believe it has a positive impact on the community. I think they should be allowed to continue with the FM translator service that is currently in use.